

The Saint Paul Public Library plays a key role in the educational and cultural survival of the City. You can play a key role in supporting the Saint Paul Public Library.

The Saint Paul Public Library:

- Serves children from birth to school-age and beyond by providing interactive Storytimes, the Summer Reading Program, Homework Help, and college access centers.
Bridges the digital divide by providing all residents of the city with free access to the Internet.
Helps people work on resumes, find jobs and learn how to save money.
Offers mortgage foreclosure prevention counseling.
Enhances quality of life and promotes the cultural environment in the communities the library serves.
Promotes individual well-being and helps people become more productive in their jobs and in their personal lives.
Spurs economic development and serves as a catalyst for public- and private-sector investment.
